

Piyofom

Foam Spray

5% Povidone iodine

Definition:

It is a disinfectant spray in the form of foam and it includes PVP Iodine.

Composition:

100 ml contains 5 g PVP Iodine.

Indications:

It's indicated in all kinds of skin and mucosal lesion and wounds caused by bacteria, fungi and viral infections to provide antiseptics. In addition to that Piyofom can be used before and after the surgeries to provide antiseptics in skin and mucosa; and to protect newborns from omphalitis and to provide antiseptics.

Dosage and administration:

Piyofom is used by spraying the foam from a distance of 15-20 cm covering all affected area. Until the healing occurs the administration should continue for 3-4 times a day.

Packing:

100 ml aluminium container.